THE CASE OF THE PRIZE RABBIT (from Leigh Ahern)

Please, may I impress upon my fellow Jolly Thing readers the need to be vigilant for "rabbits"?

No, I refer not to the cuddly lagomorphs that go "thunk, thunk" as you motor anonymously by, but to the PRIZE RABBIT who, remarkably for this day and age, still treats Public Land (especially Road Reserve) as a dump. Yep. Though I'm utterly certain that you, dear reader, are not the culprit, someone out there is still doing it!

To be sure, our Bunny is clearly a true pioneer. He nurtures and grows sheep (and cattle) on his little dream-farmlet. He gazes o'er his flock, he marvels at his own agricultural achievements. Then one day, the penny drops: "Hey, wait a minute, aren't they made of meat? We could eat them!" So, with finely honed butchery skills and an old scout sheath-knife, he zaps an unsuspecting sheep (or, yes, maybe even a cow!). Eh, voila! The Sunday barbie, the feeding frenzy, the smug satisfaction of the replete "provider"!

But, wait, some bits are left over that he just can't eat. Oh, dear. What to do with head, skin, legs, and offal? And only 10 hectares of farmland, not nearly enough room to dig a hole!

Ah, of course! Silly me! Do the Traditional Thing. Drive up into the National Park and dump it! (all that useless bush, those empty gullies...). Broom, broom. But then: "Oh, bugger, Park gate! Who put that there—and why?" Oh, well, here beside the car park will do! (Doink, off the back of the ute.) "No bugger will ever know." (Not unless they have a nose! And eyes!!)

If you recognise this brilliant pastoral guru of whom I speak (or, indeed, the RABBIT), please remind him for me, nay, for all of us, that (a) it is illegal to butcher your own stock at home, and (b) it is both unlawful and bloody inconsiderate to dump the left overs on someone else's land, in this case OURS—yours and mine. (The latter (point 'b') applies equally to the RABBIT who dumps domestic or garden waste, or who burns off potential compost, on the Road Reserve.)

So please, Mr R, if you insist on generating carrion (or weeds) at your place, why not dispose of it there also?

STEELS CREEK TENNIS & SOCIAL CLUB – 'CHRISTMAS IN JUNE'

This very successful annual event is to be held on Saturday 25th June. An event not to be missed!

Once again revellers will gather at Heather and Athol Smith's – 300 Hunts Lane, Steels Creek. Sherries are at 7 p.m., followed by a sumptuous, traditional Christmas dinner. A raffle to raise funds for the club (with some terrific, locally donated prizes) will be held during the evening.

The cost is $20.00 a head – BYO wine/beer, and although the Smith's house does stretch for this function, numbers are limited. To ensure your spot at this always popular annual get-together please contact Jean Lowe on 5965 2294 or Lindy Montell on 5965 2202

LANDCARE

On Saturday 28 May last, Steels Creek Landcare Group conducted its very first field activity. An initial small tree planting near the corner of Steels Creek Road and Gulf Road was undertaken. Despite threatening drizzly skies, about 25 members and supporters were present and planted approximately 100 trees, provided by the Shire of Yarra Ranges. Councillor Di Moore came along too. This is the first planting of a proposed series of plantings along the length of Gulf Road (weather, seasons and other projects permitting!). Following the tree planting, members gathered for a sausage sizzle at the home of Tom, Sally and Margaret Belford – thank you Margaret, for the hospitality and the warming soup!

The next meeting for the Steels Creek Landcare Group is planned for 8.00 PM on 22 June 2005 at SC4. At this meeting, it is proposed to further consider issues suggested at the Public Meeting last March, as well as those raised by members, to determine what funds, resources and priorities would be appropriate. Developing a long term plan to deal with identified issues can then provide the framework for action in our local area.

All members, and anyone in our local community concerned with land degradation issues, including environmental issues, are encouraged to join us. Have your say! New members are a still welcome and membership forms are available on request. Contact David Allan, Secretary, on 5965 2556.

RURAL LAW ONLINE – A New Legal Resource for Rural Communities – An initiative of the Victoria Law Foundation

Rural communities, farmers and their families now have an important new legal resource at their fingertips. All Australians work and live under increasingly complex laws and regulation. For rural communities, quick access to plain language legal information can be especially difficult.

Rural Law Online draws on a team of independent legal experts to provide an up-to-date, plain language website, tailored to the needs of rural Victorians. Rural Law Online provides:

- Practical legal information on more than 170 law topics
- Discussion Forums – have your say and get feedback from legal experts
- Find-a-Service – matches your needs to an extensive list of advice and support services
- Links to relevant websites,
- Feature topics and Rural News
- A Legal Dictionary

Rural Law Online is a free, web-based service giving rural Victorians practical information on law and legal issues affecting their daily lives. Web topics include: Laws and our Legal System, Land and its Uses, Emergencies, Environment and Planning, Livestock, Pets and Wildlife, Crops, Business and Consumer Law, Employment Law, The Law and Families, Dealing with Government Departments and Resolving Disputes, and Vehicles and Firearms.

Go to www.rurallaw.org.au for further information.

DIG DEEP INTO STEELS CREEK MINING HISTORY (you just might strike Gold!)

The latest publication of the Yarra Glen & District Historical Society has just been released. It is titled: "RECOLLECTIONS AND RECORDS OF MINING AT STEELS CREEK, VICTORIA", and is now available at $8.00 per copy.

This is No.1 in a series of proposed publications on our local history and the anecdotes of former & current residents. To reserve your copy contact The Secretary, Eric Tetlow, on 9730 1445.

DID ANYONE ELSE NOTICE? (From a local pedant!)

For many years, there has been a road warning sign in Steels Creek Road, just south of the turn off into Old Kinglake Road. It warns drivers heading north that they are approaching an 'S' bend in Steels Creek Road.

"Yeah, right.", I hear you say – "What of it?" Well, for many years, the sign warned that the road zigged to the left, before it zagged to the right, whereas in the real world, the opposite is in fact true! It does not appear to be recorded how many drivers were fooled by this sign and took its incorrect advice literally. But it may be assumed that not many would have done so. If they had, by now there would have been quite a pile of rather bent cars amongst the trees near Old Kinglake Road! Rumours that the sign was installed by a council contractor with links to a car wrecking business have never been confirmed or denied.

But now all is well. Apparently the Shire must have realised that the sign was fooling no-one, and has recently replaced it with a new sign which actually shows the zigs and zags in the correct direction!

But the new sign has quite taken all the excitement out of life - I guess I'll just have to go back to watching the grass grow again

BIGGEST AFTERNOON TEA – A Big Success

The Steels Creek Stitches would like to express their sincere thanks to all those who supported their recent Biggest Afternoon Tea fundraiser for the Cancer Council of Victoria. Sad though we were to be leaving Anita's Fudge Shop, our new venue of the Supper Room at the Memorial Hall did prove more spacious. It allowed us to also have a quilt display and a children's corner both of which proved popular.

In all, we raised almost $1600, a magnificent effort, thanks to wonderful local support.

STEELS CREEK ART GROUP.

It has taken several weeks to recover from this year's Easter Art Show at Yering Station. This year we can again report both an artistic and financial success. The number of entries was again a record, art works were of the highest standard, we sold over 20% of the works on display and we contributed $3,500 to the Leukaemia Auxiliary of the Royal Children's Hospital. After four successful years, this regional art show has established itself on the calendar of the Yarra Valley. The chief organisers, Chris and Christine Mullen, wish to thank all those who gave of their time or money (sometimes both!) to make the Show such a success - "Good on you, mates!"

The Steels Creek Art Group continues to meet at the Community Centre (SC4) each Thursday afternoon (1.30 - 4.30 PM). This year our numbers have increased to eight and in the next few weeks we are going to consider future developments and activities. If you are interested in sketching, drawing or painting, come along one Thursday and see if you would like to join in - we are all learning! Contact Malcolm on 5965 2372.

WELCOMING NEW -COMERS TO STEELS CREEK VALLEY

From time to time properties change hands, people move on and new faces appear around the Valley. Some are moving here from not too far a-field, but others come from further away. Maybe they would like to get to find out what the community has to offer. Maybe it would be a useful and friendly thing to simply say "Hello" and perhaps pass on a copy of this Community Newsletter. If someone wants to get to know people and to find out what is going on around the Valley, what better way to do so than to contact the people listed on these pages! A friendly welcome is assured!

NEW WINERIES OPEN THEIR CELLAR DOORS ALONG STEELS CREEK ROAD

It's all been happening lately along Steels Creek Road, on the winery front!

As anyone with up-to-date prescription glasses would have noticed (as well as those of us not so sight challenged), Yileena Park has recently opened their brand new tasting rooms in Steels Creek Road, opposite Judy's Bio-dynamic Vegies. If you have already visited (open Thursdays to Sundays), you will have noticed that Bob and Dianne have spared no expense with fitting out the new building – the workmanship of the timbered wall panelling, the fittings and the paintwork is quite stunning. They have an interesting range of wines – a Chardonnay, two Pinot-Noirs, a Merlot and two more Reds as well. Dianne has mentioned that later in the year, they are proposing to do platter type lunches. There is a stunning view from the deck in front of the tasting rooms, so lunch with a nice glass of something to go with it on a pleasant spring or summers day should be well worth waiting for. There is also a cosy fire place inside the tasting room for these chilly winter days.

Perhaps a bit less obvious, but no less worthy of welcome is the little boutique vineyard, winery and new cellar door of Brammar Estate Winery, opposite Grapevine Cottage. Look for their signs. Ian and Wendy grow, make and bottle all their own wine on the estate, right there in the shed that also doubles as the Cellar Door. Cellar Door is open on weekends only. Wines include a 2000 Merlot/Cabernet-Sauvignon/Cabernet-Franc blend, a 2001 Merlot/Cabernet-Sauvignon/Cabernet-Franc/Shiraz blend, 2001 Chardonnay/Verdehlo/Viognier blend, a 2001 Semillon/Sauvignon-Blanc/Gewurztraminer blend, as well as a 2001 Pinot Noir, a 2000 Viognier and a 2001 Pinot Gris.

These two wineries join the other existing Steels Creek wineries in making Steels Creek Valley a distinct 'valley within the Valley' destination for discerning wine lovers visiting the Yarra Valley wine region.

Happy Wine tasting!!

WOODY - an unfinished doggy storey..... (from Andrew Chapman)

Recently we received a "bluey" (now a pink form) from the Mornington Peninsula Shire council concerning an unpaid fine for our now long departed but favourite dog Woody. He had been a black and white border collie cross who came to us at the age of 6 weeks from Becky Morris. One summer long ago, he had incurred the wrath of the Council by taking an unaccompanied walk along the beach front from Sorrento to Dromana and had ended up in the Dromana pound. Although this had happened over 10 years ago, the statute of limitations does not apply to unpaid council fines..

The Council's reminder brought to mind another time some three years earlier than this incident, when we really thought we had lost our Woody (or Collingwood, to give him his full name).

We had gone on a skiing holiday in July and had left Woody with our nephew in St Kilda. On our return, our nephew said that Woody had escaped in the night and had not returned.

We searched and searched. There were an incredible number of black and white dogs around each corner, but not our Woody. Reluctantly we realized that he was not going to return.

Some eight months later in the following summer, Becky Morris's father, Mossie, was shoeing one of our horses, and with his mouth full of nails casually mentioned that he had seen our dog sitting outside a house opposite the Yarra Glen Hunt Club.

With some scepticism, but buoyed by a belief in Mossie's gifted insight into the animal world, Judith set off to investigate.

A short time later, Judith and Woody, for it was indeed he, returned home! Apparently he had arrived near the Hunt Club, thin and weary, several months earlier.

If I ever I get to Heaven (an unlikely event, I hear you say), the first question that I will ask Woody (yes, there are dogs in Heaven) will be; "How on earth did you manage get from St Kilda to Yarra Glen!?"

time to get out your wanderlust and take a hike!

Our next walk is on Sunday 26 June and will be a local circuit in the Steels Creek area, lead by David and Robyn. We will meet at 10.45 AM at the Steels Creek Picnic Ground in Old Kinglake Road. From here we will walk along Old Kinglake Road before leaving the road and climbing towards Mt Everard. After a well earned rest(!), we propose to follow the ridges south-east to the very top of Brennan Avenue spur, at the northern end of Yarra Ridge. From here it is generally all down hill back to the Picnic Ground. Bring lunch, drink and clothing suitable for anticipated weather. There are no toilets (except at David and Robyn's on the way down Brennan Avenue!)

The July walk will be on Sunday 31 July. It will be lead by Barry Sheffield, who will take us (by request) on a repeat of the popular Big Pats Creek – Richards Tramway timber track walk that we did last year. Meet at 10.30 AM, at the bridge on Big Pats Creek Road, 200 metres past the end of the bitumen, and three kilometres past Melway Reference 291 D12 (refer to that map!) Discover how Richards solved the riddle of how to get timber from his Starvation Creek mill to the broad gauge railhead at La La Siding (Warburton), via a steep and narrow strip of land at Big Pats Creek!

Clamberers having lunch at Big Pats Creek

MOVIES - 6PM at SC4 for a Light Dinner, followed by a Classic Movie. The next four movies are:

10 June The Horses Mouth (1958) 93mins, Alec Guinness, Kay Walsh, Renée Houston, Ernest Thesiger:

An obsessive painter is a liability to his friends. "A work of genius." (More from www.AllMovie.com)

24 June Jane Eyre (1944) 96mins, Joan Fontaine, Orson Welles, Margaret O'Brien, Agnes Moorehead, Elizabeth Taylor, John Abbott:

"The essentials are still there; and the nonessentials such as gloom, shadow, mist have been redoubled and magnified." (More from www.AllMovie.com)

8 July I Was a Male War Bride (1949) 105mins. Howard Hawks: Cary Grant, Ann Sheridan:

A WAC in Europe marries a French officer and can't get him home. "Cary Grant pretends to be a Frenchman (and later a Frenchwoman)... not likely to appeal to the prudish." (More from www.AllMovie.com)

22 July A Farewell to Arms (1932) 78mins, Novel by Hemingway: Gary Cooper, Helen Hayes, Adolphe Menjou, Jack La Rue:

A wounded American ambulance driver falls in love with his nurse. "Cooper at his youngest and sexiest – moving from drunkenness to intoxication." (More from www.AllMovie.com)

"See you at the Movies!"

GRAND SALE!, GRAND SALE! - Roll up One and All!!

The Garden Club will have plants, including natives, raised by the Growing Group for sale at 9.30am on the Craft Day at SC4 on 14 June. Non Garden Club members are welcome to come just for the plant sales. We're rapidly running out of space in the shade house and need to sell some plants to make room to accommodate more plants!!!!

YARRA GLEN “VALUES & VISION” PROJECT
Stage 1

Yarra Glen Memorial Hall

12 noon, Saturday 18th June

Join us for a free sausage sizzle, tea & coffee between 1 lam & 2pm

There will be copies of the project report, community displays and plenty of opportunities to talk. A good community response to this event will help us move forward with this important project and the formalization of a Yarra Glen Township Group. It will also strengthen our involvement with the Shire and ensure that our views are known.

Come along and be part of the action!
