STEELS CREEK COMMUNITY NOTES - NO 91 (June/July 2011) FIND OUT WHAT'S GOING ON IN THE VALLEY

Captain Speaking

We expect to encounter a little turbulence at the Community Centre. The building work is expected to start shortly and one of the first jobs will be to replace the existing roof. The Council want to do this now rather than integrate with the project as a whole, mainly for financial reasons, certainly not because of anticipated good weather.
Inevitably there will be some impact on activities at the Centre, but every effort will be made to minimise them and any disruption to planned activities will be notified to the organiser and the Grapevine.
So in the meantime sit back, relax and enjoy the latest edition of our magazine the Jolly Thing

Yarra Valley Railway Station

Things are progressing towards rail service (sorry, tourist variety only) returning to Yarra Glen. The Yarra Valley Tourist Railway Society and the Yarra Glen Township Group are holding a public meeting on progress and plans for the Yarra Glen Railway Station precinct. The meeting will be held on Thursday, 9 June starting at 8pm in the Uniting Church Hall (top of the hill near the Melba Lodge). Grants have been received towards restoring the station building and a 100-car parking lot at the station yard. Bicycle Victoria is planning a walking/biking track from Lilydale to Yarra Glen on the old track bed to join with the coming trolley service from Yarra Glen to the Train Trak Winery. Find out more at the meeting and how you can support it.

Steels Creek Tennis & Social Club Happenings

Christmas in July: Reserve Saturday evening, 23 July for the Christmas in July dinner in the new clubroom. Details will be put on the web site and in Andrew's "Grapevine".

New Clubroom Open: We celebrated the Grand Opening of the clubrooms on Sunday, May 18. Council Mayor Terry Avery and Cr. Jeanette McRae assisted Life Members Jean Lowe and Alby and Gwen Leckie in cutting the ribbon. About 60 community residents and members came to see the event, enjoy morning tea, and then have a BBQ and hit – despite impending rain. Danielle Lowerson, Community Tennis Officer with Tennis Victoria, provided games and prizes for the younger set. Thanks to all for the great day.

Saturday Tennis: Saturday competitions have started again with mixed results. Come show your support from 1pm on Saturdays (see the JT calendar for dates of play).

Coaching: We are working with Tennis Victoria to find a new tennis coach. Andre has moved out of the area, so stay tuned for news.

Morning Mum's Tennis: Ready to start up again? Contact Libby Sharp 5965 2175, if you'd like to join in.

Social Tennis: Warm or hot, the tennis is always just right at Monday and Thursday night social tennis. We expect to start charging for lights again in June, but at $2 per person for night tennis. The bulbs are not cheap, we found out. Come and enjoy the tennis and friendship.

Web site: www.yarraglen.com/SCTC/ Ed Bartosh, Secretary

Anyone for tennis?

Jo and Lindy currently play a short, social game of tennis on Tuesday mornings from 9.30 a.m. We would love to have company! If you would like to join us, please telephone Lindy on 5965 2202. Steels Creek Tennis Club offers great value to members and even if you are not a member you are welcome to come along and give it a try.

Rebuilding Project – An Update

At long last, by the time you are reading this report, a contract for the rebuilding of the Centre and shed/workshop should have been signed. Work will commence as soon as the Building Permits are received and, with some reasonable weather, completed by November THIS YEAR!

Last week a further 100 cubic metres of soil was removed and most of the site works are completed ready for the builder. We were lucky in that Melbourne Water needed fill for creek work near Pinnacle Lane so that kept the removal costs to a minimum.

The retaining wall at the rear of the Centre was to be finished by now but it has been just a little too damp. Perhaps we should plant rice as a cash crop to raise funds.

The Shire has agreed, as part of their maintenance programme, to replace the existing 60 year old corrugated iron roof. The roof leaks frequently and is probably 50% silicone and rust. The replacement roofing will be colorbond to match in with the new Centre roof. Some other repairs will be made at the same time; to meet fire regulations, and possibly the insulation will be upgraded.

Children's Playground

It has been a priority on our wish list to reinstate a playground for the small children (of whom there are increasing numbers) in the Valley. We have already received funding from Blue Circle; the Shire; and Gembrook Market but now we have received a $15k grant from the Dept. of Human Services (Bushfire Fund) that makes the project possible.

This Grant under the banner of "Men Building Bridges" is focussed mainly on getting men in bushfire affected areas to work together on community projects. We thought that this would be a good way to involve the younger families in the community by running a few working bees, with a BBQ/family picnic of course, to help construct and landscape the playground. There is some funding set aside also for workshops eg chainsaw safety.

The Healesville Lions Club have offered to manage the project and provide expertise as they have a former playground "expert" in their group. We will not be doing much physical work until the main Centre works are finished but will, in the next month or so, set up a small group of interested parents to help with design ideas and getting the ball rolling. Keith Montell

Keith has done a sterling job to steer the project to this stage and deserves our thanks Editor

The Bats Are Back

Just want to let you know that Parks Victoria have been surveying the Steels Creek mine sites since the Black Saturday, and are pleased to report that the eastern bent –wing bats are still using the mine which they used before the fire. The females have returned from their migration to Gippsland and are settled in for their quiet over winter time at Steels creek and One Tree Hill mines (Christmas Hills). Ecological consultant Rob Gration and myself would be happy to talk more to the locals at a time of convenience, if they find the bats of interest !

Simon Pierce

Flood Fund Raiser

On behalf of the people of Steels Creek and Yarra Glen who supported our efforts to raise funds for the flood impacted people in Kyabram, we would like to say thank you. Muriette Wiles opened her garden on the 1st of May, and the community rallied. Joanne Spears and her granddaughter Jade sold sausages; Fran Bailey baked cup cakes, and Jill Hess sold a range of food, which included sandwiches, slices, to name a few and Toni Mitchell worked the coffee machine. Jane and Malcolm Calder came along with the plants from the Garden Club, and Chris Tomlins helped out on the day. Malcolm also donated some breathtaking prints which were sold on the day.
Maureen and her offsider came from the Cow Shed Pottery, and we were introduced to the delights of the mushrooms and toadstools that were sold on the day.
David played his music, and Nicole sold plants sourced from Warren Glen nursery. The Salvation Army gave a donation to buy the sausages and drinks, introduced us to David, and sent along Jo, who bought many family and friends from the inner city.

EACH gave us letter to attract donations, and Cheryl Crynes did her magic, including introducing us to her friend, Chrissy who made the most delightful teddies in blankets.
My daughter Sharyn, her partner Warren, and son Nathan came to help with the parking, even though Nathan had, in his role with the CFA, attended a serious accident the night before, which asa seventeen year old was quite confronting.
We raised approximately $1,700 on the day, and the Uniting Church have given us a donation of $500.00
Bob Curtis came after his usual market, and sold some wine, and he and Di have agreed that we can put our auction of the quilt in their winery. As they are currently on holidays, we will wait for them to return.
As you can see, this day was not just a fund-raiser, but a wonderful community building exercise, supported by a diverse group of people. It would be remiss of me not to mention the fact that Jeanette McCrae organised a donation of a worm farm, which is going to make Mike and Marjorie and their grandson a very happy young man as he learns about compost, and all that goes with that. Thank you for your support; it is very much appreciated.
There was one down side for the day, and that is that during the clean up, Nicole lost her phone.
If you picked up a phone that is not yours, please phone Nicole on 0427 949 697.

Autumn

'Season of mist and mellow fruitfulness' (thanks to my old English teacher some of it stuck)
Haven't the colours been great this year with more rain by half over the past 5 months the trees have had a tremendous recovery and with leaves full of sugar the cold start of an early winter has highlighted the colours in contrast with the grey skies and Irish green grass.
Two Silver Birches which just managed to survive the black Saturday onslaught and our axe have rewarded us with vivid colour; almost fire like in shape; we have put the axe well and truly away.

SC4 Film Club

More fun; suspense; and drama together with fine food and good company. BYO Drinks
Every one enjoyed our first film "The Straight Story" quirky but gentle. We will look for more in a similar vein. We have had several offers to host our movie nights when, and if, the Centre renovations make it necessary. Thanks to all who offered and we may well take them up.
A Rom-Com; a Musical; and a couple of Westerns (sort of - One is a Mexican!) should warm us up in the depths of winter. Keep an eye on the Grapevine in case there is a change of venue/date as we may be starting building works some time soon (this decade).

- Screening on Friday 10 June:
  PILLOW TALK (1959).

Rock Hudson stars as a songwriter/ playboy who shares a phone line with pert interior decorator Doris Day. They develop an intense dislike for each other but as you expect in a Rom-Com the chemistry kicks in and so do the laughs. This film, the first pairing of Rock & Doris, won an Academy award for story and screenplay in 1960. See move at IMDB at http://www.imdb.com/title/tt0053172/.

- Screening on Friday 24 June:
  THREE AMIGOS (1986)

Starring Steve Martin, Chevy Chase and Martin Short as a trio of heroic caballeros that are called on for help when a nasty type outlaw terrorises a small Mexican village. These three courageous film star fighters soon discover that the bandits and the bullets are real and they have choice to either become true heroes or hang up their spurs in shame. The fun just keeps on coming and is one not to be missed. See move at IMDB at http://www.imdb.com/title/tt0092086/.

- Screening on Friday 8 July:
  MEET ME IN ST LOUIS (1944)

Starring Judy Garland, Margaret O'Brien, Marjorie Main and Mary Astor.
As a then 22 year old Judy sings her way through this charming and nostalgic musical you will enjoy the warm humour and eye catching sets. And as well as the title song we have the "Trolley Song" (clang, clang etc) "Have Yourself a Merry Christmas" and Judy pining for "The Boy Next Door".
How could you miss a film written by Irving Brecher & Fred Finklehoffe ? See move at IMDB at http://www.imdb.com/title/tt0037059/.

- Screening on Friday 22 July:
  PALEFACE (1948)

Someone is selling guns to the Indians and in order to find the culprit Calamity Jane (Jane Russell) and a secret agent go undercover posing as man and wife. When the agent is killed Jane recruits a new husband -- none other than innocent dupe "Painless" Peter Potter (Bob Hope), a totally inept dentist and confirmed coward who's main goal is to leave the barbaric west far behind. When their wagon train is attacked by the Indians it's Jane's sharpshooting that saves the day, but she gives the credit to Potter making him an instant hero to the townspeople and instant target to both the Indians and the gunrunners. See move at IMDB at http://www.imdb.com/title/tt0040679/.

Zonzo –The Food Writer Returns

Most people enjoy pizza, but not my husband, well not until just recently when we had an early dinner at Zonzo. Like us you may have driven past a hundred times without any great desire to enter the gate. It was a rather surprising experience. The place is large and somewhat outdated in the décor, but the staff were warm and friendly. The entrée we ordered was an antipasto platter, warmed crumbed big green olives, haloumi cheese, fine salami, very pleasant and inexpensive. We were enjoying a bottle of the house Pinot Noir when our pizza arrived. What a lovely surprise, it was delicious, fresh prawns lightly cooked resting on a bed of fresh spinach, with the usual tomato and cheese base. Feta pieces distributed generously through the prawns.
Next I tried a chocolate desert that was rich and very yummy, perhaps not so good for the waistline but we did share it.
By and large it was very quick service and more than satisfactory, the wallet was not damaged at all, very reasonable and well worth another trip.
It is not haute cuisine but a truly terrific pizza and very pleasant pinot. Score 7/10.. Judith Augustine
